Reports

Chronicler: minutes are up on the Facebook page

Web-minister: The .com calendar is up to date. The .org is still under development.

The contact form has been taken down because it just stopped working. It worked when it was new, I tested it, but it just stopped. The kingdom wanted us to take them down anyway.

Please send me anything you have for the A&S blog or the Meet the Populace Page. Especially officers!

Exchequer: We have money.

Suggestion: Should we spend some of that money on new loaner gear?

We have about a truckload of loaner gear. We actually like to stay at about the level we are at now because it means we have enough to pay for events and things.

Herald: Submissions are good for the soul. Especially if you have already earned an award but do not have arms yet. This month, in all of Meridies, there were nine submissions. So, it's a good time to submit.

Chatelaine: No strong interest from new people this month

If you know anyone who is interested: we have upcoming demos with the library July 18th, Saturday, is the end of summer reading party which will have a Renn Fest feel, so we have been invited to put up a few tents for demos—might be at Lowe Mill, might be at the new stadium if it's ready—though that is the same weekend as RUM and Fighter's Collegium

Library also wants us to teach classes, Tuesday June 23rd, Friday the 26th, Monday the 29th, Friday Wednesday July 8th, Thursday July 9th—all of these are on the Facebook page

A&S: There is no A&S class this month because Gulf Wars—but we will have a Gulf Wars Pity party on Wednesday the 18th, for those who cannot go to Gulf Wars Project Night will be March 11th and 24th

April- Mistress Nula will do another food class with more summery foods

Still looking for teachers for May and onward, so if you are interested in teaching, please contact Sigurd

Susan may be interested in teaching how to make a bodice pattern out of duck tape in June (17th)

Blake is interested in doing a beta for a rope making class he is developing in May

This month is the end of first quarter; a new form will be posted soon, so PLEASE fill it out before the end of the month

July might be the Pennsic Pity Party, which is BEGGAR's

New Business:

- Beggar's War: St Thomas will not work for full day events in summer
 - Something to think about: the old Shriner's/NSS location is a great outdoor location for $700 ($200 returned if you clean up afterwards), and they allow archery, and have a space for camping. Might not work for Beggar's (outdoors in July), but it might be a good spot for future events
- Holy Week is going to run through the first week of April, so we will need another location for next month's meeting and that week's fighter practice
 - Suggestions: Whole Foods has a meeting room, Cabela's has a meeting room, if no one under 21 RSVP's- the Nook has said they would be willing to let us meet there before, Scott's company might be willing to let us use their Conference room or possibly a shared seminar room
- Virginia's husband Brad laser engraved a really cool snap-shot of Iain- pictures will be shared on the Facebook page, he takes commissions
