Reports

A&S: If you have not filled out the form for the first quarter, please do it ASAP

Trinnen has suggested doing a group, online video viewing in place of A&S class night, so we can still learn something, if not have an in-person class

Katrina and Trinnen are keeping Project Nights going on Facebook

Exchequer: We have money. We will not be getting Gulf Wars money. (Surprise) If anyone has not yet asked for a refund from Gulf Wars, tomorrow is the last day.

Herald: If you have anything to submit, you can contact me by email or at Alexander Shaw on Facebook

Heavy: No report, we have not been meeting

Chatelaine: No report

Chronicler: minutes are up on the Facebook page

Web-minister: The .com calendar is up to date. The .org is still under development. At this point, we've almost got permission to make our page public, but there was an issue with the C-panel they gave us for making and managing officer emails, they spelled An Dun Theine wrong, and we just got a new one, so I need to completely redo everyone's emails.

Please send me anything you have for the A&S blog or the Meet the Populace Page. Especially officers!

New Business:

- About Beggar's. At the moment, we can't tour any sites or anything, so we will be waiting and seeing what will happen. Some Kingdoms are doing virtual events, but we don't really know how/have the resources to do that.
- The video viewing for A&S will be next week, and Project Night the following week.
- Kingdom-wide Scriptoriums are on Tuesdays, so let's do them Wednesday.
- Would anyone be interested in doing a potluck once we are out of quarantine? General consensus: yes!
